

Romulus To Vote On City Charter May 7

ROMULUS Registered voters of Romulus Township will go to the polls May 7 to cast ballots on a proposed City Charter.

The Wayne County Elections Commission has approved a request by Romulus' nine-member Charter Commission to hold the election on May 7 so as not to conflict with other scheduled elections.

Charter Commission members are currently working on the final phases of the proposed city charter and hope to complete this task long before the election.

Township voters turned out in record numbers in a special election held in November 1968 and approved City Incorporation by a vote of 2,187 to 1,657.

The total vote cast was 5,915 in the election that also included voter decision of candidates seeking various county state and national offices.

In approving the proposition on City Incorporation voters also selected nine candidates to serve as a Charter Commission and prepare a city charter for voter approval within a two-year period.

Numerous meetings of the commission have been held since including conferences with attorneys and officials from nearby cities in efforts to prepare the best possible charter for the township.

The proposed charter calls for a strong mayor form of government with a seven member council, clerk and treasurer all to be elected by city-wide vote.

Details of the proposed city charter will be published prior to the election. Voters in balloting on the proposed city charter will also choose the city's first administrative body.

Nominating petitions and deadline for filing to fill posts in the new city government, if approved by the voters, has not yet been scheduled.

Alfred J. Perry, township clerk announced.

Earlier salary schedules proposed by the charter commission for city officials set in a meeting held in June, 1969, have been increased at a meeting held last Saturday at the township's water department building. More than 20 Community Leaders including the full Charter Commission were in attendance.

Under the proposed charter, election will be non-partisan.

The legislative body will consist of seven members

STRIKE IS ON — Romulus township employees went on strike today. Shown above are members of local chapter 64-A, of Council 23 International Union as of the American Federation of State County and Municipal Employees wage schedules and job classification is at issue.

Strike Is Called Against Romulus Administration

Union's Vote Is Unanimous

BY HENRY CANTIN

ROMULUS Romulus Township employees in a specially called union meeting Monday voted to strike against the township.

The vote to strike against township government officials was unanimously approved last Monday afternoon in a union meeting held at the Romulus Junior High School.

Nearly all of the township's 63 municipal employees with the exception of members of the Romulus Police Department, attended the vote session.

It is the first official and active strike action in the history of the township.

The employees, members of the Local Chapter 64-A of the Metropolitan Council No. 23 of the International Union of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal employees, charged through their Council 23 representative, Leon Carroll, that the township board has failed to negotiate wage schedules and job classification.

The union charges that the township despite numerous attempts to negotiate these matters has refused to bargain.

Union members were to meet at 8 a.m. at the L & L Hall, located near the township hall, to start the strike.

Supervisor J. Smith when asked about the strike vote

"I think the strike, if it should take place, is illegal for two reasons.

"First is that state law forbids public employees from going on strike. Even if this law is declared unconstitutional, this strike under provisions of the contract the township has with the employees is illegal in that the union has not followed the grievance procedure.

"They haven't gone to arbitration. They have requested of the township board for an early meeting to (Continued on Page 3-A)

Courts Close Tomorrow Romulus Requests Vandalism Law

ROMULUS — The 34th District Court will be closed for the transactions of business tomorrow in the observance of Lincoln's birthday, and on Monday

Feb. 23 in the observance of Washington's birthday.

The closing announcement was made by Chief Clerk Charles Walls.

ROMULUS — The Romulus township board has authorized the adoption of an ordinance on vandalism.

The board's action followed the receipt of a communication dated Jan. 27, from John E. Young, township attorney, disclosing that Act No. 230 of 1969 state statutes provides in part that a township may pass an ordinance which will render acts of vandalism in public parks or recreation areas as a misdemeanor.

He also reported that the act further provides that any person convicted of an act of vandalism shall reimburse the township' general fund in an amount up to three times the amount of damage as determined by the court. If (Continued on Page 3-A)

Last Friday, a representative from the MPSC recommended that a traffic control signal should be installed as conditions have changed since and pending the installation of the traffic signal he urged township officials to install adequate lighting in the area.

Girl Scouts Set Goal For Kidney Machine

A kidney machine for the use of a Romulus resident is the long range goal of Mrs. Robin Kring's Girl Scout Troop No. 416.

The idea for the project was adopted at a meeting of the five patrol leaders and the troop leader, when they'd decided to begin to save the 600,000 General Mills coupons that will be necessary to obtain the machine.

The first project, Mrs. Kring reported, will be a raffle at the PTA spring fair on May 23. At that time a bicycle will be raffled and the General Mills coupons will be the currency required for the tickets.

Funds for the purchase of the bicycle will be taken from the troop treasury, she said.

"I am really proud of them," said Mrs. Kring, "the girls had a little money in their treasury and they wanted to do something for someone else; they could have spent it on an outing for themselves."

The girls hope that others will want to help them with their project and that every General Mills coupon will be clipped and saved for them.

At the moment, Mrs. Kring reported, no one in the Romulus area is in need of a machine. But she added that it will take more than a year to accumulate the coupons.

Anyone wishing to help the girls may send coupons to Girl Scout Troop No. 416, 9509 Lisa Drive, Romulus, 48174.

Tax Bill Due Date Extended

ROMULUS — Property owners were given an extension on the due date for payment of their 1969 property tax without penalty.

Joseph Wallis, township treasurer, announced Monday that the tax bills state that after the Feb. 14 due date a four percent penalty will be added to bill.

The new due date on which tax bills can be paid without the added four percent is now Feb. 28. Wallis said.

VFW Post Reports Robbery

ROMULUS — A break-in at the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) Post No. 9568 is under investigation by the Ypsilanti State Police Post.

Entry into the post, located at 9270 Huron River Drive, was made (Jan. 28) through the ventilator on the roof of the one-story building.

Bar manager, Bud Wreede of Belleville, reported that the burglars took $240 in change, $60-$70 from the pool table and about $60 from the cigarette machine.

An undetermined amount of liquor was also taken.

Entry was also made into the VFW Hall adjacent to the bar through another roof ventilator. Nothing was reported missing from the hall, he said.

The program consisted of a seven-student panel discussion titled, "Sound Off".

Otha Jones chairman of the Romulus Community Relations Commission, introduced the panel students. Each student was allowed a three-minute talk of comments and problems in the schools. Then, a 45-minute question-and-answer period where the audience participated.

McConeghy answered some of the questions that the students presented. and Nault explained the situation at the senior high. Mrs. Baggett commented on the questions raised by the Panel. All in all it was a success.

The Relations Commission wants to express their grateful thanks to all who have attended and hope that this discussion will not die, but make an effort to do all in their power to review the situations that exist in the schools.

With the help of the Board of Education and administrative officials and faculty, this program will bring about better understanding and cooperation with the students, officials stated.

Lenten Season

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is the first of a series of Lenten Sermons by area pastors and leading churchmen. This week's article was submitted by Rev. Don Crocker, pastor of the Zion Missionary Church of Belleville).

"THREE SAWS" John 20:1-10

By Rev. Don Crocker

The Bible tells us that when Peter and John heard that Christ's body was no longer in the tomb they ran to see for themselves. Upon arriving, John who had outrun Peter, stooping down looked into the tomb "and saw the linen clothes."

Literally, the word saw in the Greek as used here means "a passing glance or a quick look." John only took a passing glance or a quick look at the tomb. He saw it but not its significance.

Unlike John, when Peter arrived at the tomb he went directly in. As John, he too "saw the linen clothes." However, the word saw in the Greek here means "studied and careful observation."

Unique Sculptural Project 5 Cory Pupils Under-Take

By BEVERLY McANALLY

ROMULUS—Letting the chips fall where they may, (and having to sweep them up later) some Cory Elementary School fifth and sixth graders are learning what goes in to making a sculpture while also learning a little about life.

Under the guidance of their Art teacher, Mrs. Cheryl Huff and encouraged by their PTA, five young artists are spending their free time, lunch periods and "off" days in the art room working together to create something for their school.

The project was started this fall when some talented youngsters got together with an imaginative teacher.

The PTA became interested and bought the necessary tools. One of the fathers, Jim Petre, while on a hunting trip, made a side trip to Alabaster, Mich., to select and bring home several pieces of alabaster.

The young people began to learn the value of good planning and they have a plan in mind as they work. But, they are not saying what it is because anyone knows that if you're planning something tall and skinny and you accidentally knock off a leg or two, you just might have to revise your plans into something short and fat.

That's just being "flexible."

They are finding out that teamwork plays a major role in their endeavor too. One worker cannot "do his own thing," he has to go along with the group, contributing his talent to the total effort.

They hope to finish the project by spring, thereby learning another lesson about the importance of deadlines.

Finally, and not of least importance, they are finding that it is nice to be remembered by one's good work, for some of the children will be leaving Cory to go to the Junior High next year, leaving behind proof of their talents and abilities.

Outdoor Writer Comments On U.S. Pollution Program

By LEE SMITS
Special Writer

There is an old Japanese saying - "When men talk of the future, rats in the ceiling laugh."

Prophecy has always been a risky business, yet we all engage in it; trying to guess what tomorrow will bring.

When the President of the United States and the Governor of Michigan issue forceful statements relating to the future of outdoor resources, an old-timer feels justified in proffering predictions.

President Nixon advocates a nation-wide 10 billion dollar campaign against pollution of water and air. At the same time, Governor Milliken unveils a Charter for Clean Environment.

In a message to the Michigan Legislature, the Governor warns that "our own children may see the last traces of earth's beauty crushed beneath the weight of man's waste and ruin." He called a conference on urban leisure, held at Wayne State University in conjunction with the fourteenth annual meeting of the Michigan Natural Resources Council.

History, we're told, repeats itself. What were the vital outdoor issues in the past? Forest fire would be high on the list. Michigan's No. 1 product was lumber and there was reluctance to put pressure on the big companies whose logging railroads were the principal cause of fires in the timber. But agitation continued until, eventually, forest fires were reduced to a minimum.

The sale of game was at one time an open scandal. Carloads of Michigan deer were shipped to big city markets. Thousands of game birds were bought and sold.

President Nixon Issues Tribute To Boy Scouts

Our local Boy Scout Council has received the following "Boy Scout Week" message from the President of the United States.

Boy Scout Week is Feb. 7 to 13 and the Anniversary date of the beginning of the Boy Scouts of America was celebrated on Feb. 8, when the organization will mark Sixty years of service.

The willingness to serve has been the wellspring of success for our nation throughout its eventful history. And nowhere has it been better reflected than within the ranks of America's Boy Scouts.

Long proved in deeds, your commitment is effectively captured in the theme of your BOYPOWER '76 campaign: "America's Manpower Begins With BOYPOWER."

By beginning early to instill in young men the qualities of leadership and responsible citizenship, you have been building for the future and assuring the continuing role of the volunteer spirit in our nation's life.

On this Sixtieth Anniversary of Boy Scout Week, you can look with pride on a list of accomplishments that can never be fully measured or adequately repaid. Your

Gun Club Reports on Plans

ROMULUS—A new and fast growing activity has been introduced in Romulus. It is The Romulus Gun Club. The Gun Club first came into existence on March 30 1969.

The meetings of the Club are held on the second Sunday of each month at the VFW Hall Post No. 9568, at 39270 Huron River Drive. The club's emblem was designed by Executive Board member William Ferguson. He not only designed but also painted the emblem for the club.

The club is chartered and affiliated with the National Rifle Association. The club has a goal for a Junior Gun Club which would give the sports-minded youngsters opportunity to broaden their ambitions. The club has a Women's Division, which gives the ladies a chance to match their skills.

The club intends to have a regular Archery Team, Pistol Team and Rifle Team for competition shooting and practice, officials reported.

Future planning will include turkey shoots, a variety of gun shows and other interesting events for the coming year.

It is not necessary to be a Romulus resident to join the Gun Club, only a sports-minded individual.

To join the fast growing new Gun Club contact James E. Stewart at 721-6625.

WASHINGTON—Congressman William D. Ford (Democrat-15th District) announced this week that examinations for summer jobs with the Federal Government next year have been scheduled by the U.S. Civil Service Commission.

Residents of the 15th Congressional District may take the examination in Wyandotte or Ypsilanti on February 14 or March 14. Applications must be filed five weeks in advance of the testing.

Complete details and application forms may be obtained by writing to Congressman Ford at 125 House Office Building, Washington D. C. 20515.

Congressman Ford noted that college students who will have completed at least two years of college work by next June, and who have a grade-point average of 3.5 on a four-point scale, may qualify without taking the written test. Students majoring in engineering or physical science may qualify with a 3.0 average.

Applicants who qualified by taking examinations last year do not have to submit new applications for consideration in 1970. They have been sent special forms on which to update their qualifications and indicate availability next summer.

Congressman Ford emphasized that the number of openings is relatively small, and that only a small percentage of applicants are hired. Last year, some 22,000 jobs were filled, from a list of nearly 159,000 eligible applicants.

"For this reason, students seeking summer work in 1970 should not apply solely with the Federal Government," Congressman Ford said. "Other possibilities should be explored."

Of the applicants chosen last year, 11,000 were assigned to clerical jobs, 8,000 worked as post office clerks or carriers, and about 3,000 were given sub-professional positions related to their college studies.

Strike Is On

"The township board, at its Feb. 2 meeting, agreed to meet with the union on these matters on Feb. 12."

Smith stated that the township board ordered that a communication to this effect be sent to the union.

He said that the letter was forwarded to union officials. President of the local chapter 64-A is Russell Makowski.

Smith also stated that he has contacted John E. Young, township attorney to prepare necessary legal proceedings for injunctive relief in the Wayne County Circuit Court against union officials.

The township approved a three-year contract with the union April 1, 1968.

The contract contained a clause that job classifications and wage schedules be negotiated during the life of the contract.

Union members have reported that they have requested of the township board to negotiate these areas of the contract on numerous occasions without any success.

Members of the Romulus Police Department are covered in a separate employment contract approved by the township, two months ago.

Vote on City Charter

The township's vote registry as of edition time totaled 7,362. To be eligible to cast ballots, a voter must be registered, a resident of the township for at least 30 days and of the state at least six months.

Qualified voters are also eligible to run for office in the city government.

The charter must be approved first by the electorate. If rejected, the charter commission would have to re-submit a new charter within its two-year period, or another election of City incorporation and Charter Commission would have to be held.

Salaries as now proposed in the charter called for the annual salary of $17,500 for mayor councilmen wage at $3,000 and $3,500 for council chairman. And $12,000 annually for clerk and treasurer.

Law Sought

The attorney in his letter asked if the township board wanted such an ordinance prepared.

Trustee Jimmie Raspberry motioned that the board so instruct the attorney to prepare the ordinance for board approval. He was supported by Trustee Ellis T. Pennington. The motion carried unanimously.

Wayne County Poster Girl Looks To National Contest

BY SANDRA KASHDAN

Kimberly Kroczyk, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Kroczyk of 3964 Niagra in Wayne, danced to the strains of Latin American music.

Unusual?

Not particularly—for most three-year-olds.

But for Kimberly, the 1970 Wayne County March of Dimes poster girl, it was a triumphant experience.

An exchanting blonde, Kimberly was born with "Spina bifida," a major birth defect commonly called "open spine."

Recounting enthusiastically the most exciting things that have happened since her daughter's selection in November, Mrs. Kroczyk sees Kimberly's appearances on television shows and meeting celebrities as unquestionably holding first place.

"Getting up at five, in the morning for the Bill Kennedy show was rather a jar," she said.

Best of all was meeting Detroit's mayor, Roman Gribbs.

Kimberly recognizes herself on television and demands of her mother, "What did I say?"

"Nuthin!" shoots back Mrs. Kroczyk. Kimberly's tendency to "clam up around strangers" has become a running joke between mother and daughter and Kimberly breaks out in a sly grin.

"Actually," said Mrs. Kroczyk, "she can talk like you never heard a child talk."

Kimberly moved from shy innocence, sitting quietly in a chair at the beginning of the interview to carefree, and affectionate activity.

Tony, her 11-month-old brother, was the object of most of her affection.

Kimberly now recognizes Mayor Gribbs whenever she sees him on television and reminds everybody who the gentleman on screen is.

What price success?

"The kids around here all think she's special," says Mrs. Kroczyk.

"Some people get excited when they find out who she is. But, to those who have always known us, we're still just Kimmy and Jackie."

"There are those who have asked to 'borrow' Kim," Mrs. Kroczyk recalls with a amusement, to get reservations and celebrity service at restaurants.

Asked if brothers, Eddie, 9, and Terry, 8, envy sister's sudden fame, Mrs. Kroczyk responds with an emphatic, "No, not in the least."

Kimberly is a candidate for next year's national poster girl, an honor that would keep mother and daughter busy five to six months.

"Then we'll be even," Mrs. Kroczyk says laughingly, recalling her husband's road trip last year with Detroit Tiger pitcher Denny McLain. Her husband plays bass fiddle in the Tiger star's band, a job that kept Mr. Kroczyk away from the family most of last winter.

It was only a coincidence that Mickey Lolich, another star Tiger pitcher, served as chairman of the Wayne County March of Dimes and announced Kimberly's selection.

Kimberly doesn't quite understand the meaning of the honor, "but she knows the title," says Mrs. Kroczyk. "She tells everybody brightly who she is."

Mrs. Kroczyk looks forward to the national contest.

She savors the chance to help others.

Suburban Six To Expand

There'll be a new alignment in the near future for the Suburban Six Association.

Two Dearborn high schools—Edsel Ford and Dearborn—will move out of the four-team Sauk Trail League next year to find a new home in an expanded Suburban Six, it was learned today.

The two Dearborn schools are expected to be in the newly aligned conference by the 1970-71 school year, though it is a question at present whether they will participate in all athletic competition at that time.

The Suburban Six, which in all probability will also get a new name, is made up presently of Plymouth, Belleville, Livonia, Bentley Trenton, Allen Park, and Redford Union.

Dearborn and Edsel are presently affiliated with the Sauk Trail League, which is in its third year of existence. Wayne and Ypsilanti, the other two league members, had previously announced their intentions to leave the Sauk Trail in order to join different conferences. Wayne will enter the Mid-Wayne Conference. Ypsilanti is to join the six-A League in 1971-72.

"The two schools will be included in all activities as soon as present schedule commitments allow," said John P. Ford, principal at Belleville High and president of the Suburban Six Activities' Association.

"They will be admitted officially at the regular league meeting in April," Ford said.

Ford said the reformation of the conference had been in the works for several years.

He cited the need to "eliminate jockeying for games" as one of the prime reasons for the expansion.

"We feel the inclusion of these two schools will enhance the league. All of the schools are of the same size and have similar philosophies in education as well as athletics," Ford said.

At present, many of the schools involved compete care services will be available during the evening's program.

LIFE HEALTH

Stomach Ulcers

Ulcers are nothing more than open sores on the lining of the stomach or the upper part of the small intestine.

Pain is, by far, the most common sign of ulcers. This pain may vary from a mild discomfort to a sharp severe, and sometimes penetrating pain. It generally is of the same type, and recurs in the same location. It tends to maintain a rhythm of recurrence and has a tendency of regular periods of remission and later becomes chronic.

Other symptoms of ulcers include constipation, heartburn, bloating, nausea, vomiting and weight loss. The science of chiropractic, in most cases of ulcers, provides the safest, surest, and most effective pathway to relief. Skilled chiropractors can locate and correct the cause of the nerve interference which results in lowered resistance in some part of the body.

The competent hands of the chiropractor can make gentle adjustments to correct vertebral misalignments which result in pressures on the spinal cord and spinal nerves and provide one of the primary factors in the development of peptic ulcers. Another Health and Life Article from the Office of:

Newly Wed Millers Making Home In New Boston

The newly wed Chris Allen Millers, who are making their home at 36554 Bismarck, New Boston, have postponed their honeymoon until summer when classes for both have ended.

Esther Lynn Johnson, who teaches first grade at the Jefferson Schools in Monroe, became Mrs. Miller in a six o'clock ceremony Saturday, January 24. The Rev. Claire Wolf presided at the double ring nuptials before some 150 friends and relatives.

The Kermit N. Johnsons, of 3131 22nd Street, Wyandotte, and the Claud P. Millers, of 18149 Matthews, Riverview, are parents of the young couple.

AS ESTHER and her father approached the altar of the Glenwood United Methodist Church in Wyandotte, traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes at the organ.

For her wedding day the bride selected a toe-touching creation of satin with a silk organza overlay. The bodice and sleeves were made of lace and the A-line skirt drifted into a brief chapel train.

FOR YOUR VALENTINE TEA—Take the doldrums out of February by sparking up the month with a tea on Valentine's Day. Invite those 'special' friends who are always available when you need a favor — babysitting, running to the store, feeding the dog when you're away, doing errands for you when the car's not available. This is an ideal way to express your thanks. And to serve those who have a special place in your heart, here's a tender, butter-flavored-coconut square recipe that's perfect for your party. The squares use a medium-cut moist cookie coconut developed especially for baking.

Courtesy Baker's Cookie Coconut

Say 'Thank You' To Special Friends On Valentine's Day

Every family has a few guardian angels that deserve to be thanked on Valentine's Day. What about that next door neighbor who takes in the mail when you're out of town? Or the friend who can always add your youngest to her family when you have to run downtown for an errand?

Shine up the halos for these angels on Valentine's Day by inviting them in for an afternoon tea. Make it a special occasion by having a single flower corsage or nosegay for each guest. You might pack a small ribbon-wrapped packet of the teatime cookies for each friend to take home for her family.

These tender Coconut Dream Squares are bar cookies with the rich blend of butter and coconut flavors. They use Baker's Cookie Coconut, a form of coconut developed especially for cakes and cookies.

Fit for angels also are Ambrosia Bars. These moist, chewy, and rich bars bake in a jelly roll pan, so their yield is considerable — nice for a very long Valentine list!

Coconut Dream Squares

- 1 cup sifted cake flour or all-purpose flour
- 1/4 cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 1/3 cup soft butter
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 1/4 cup sifted cake flour or all-purpose flour
- 1/2 teaspoon double-acting baking powder
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1 cup cookie coconut
- 1 cup chopped walnuts

*Or use 1-1/3 cups (about) flaked coconut

Combine 1 cup flour and 1/4 cup brown sugar. Add butter and mix until thoroughly blended. Press firmly into an ungreased 9-inch square pan and bake at 350 degrees for 15 minutes.

Meanwhile, beat eggs until light. Add 1 cup brown sugar gradually, beating constantly until mixture is light and fluffy. Sift 1/4 cup flour with the baking powder fold into egg mixture. Add vanilla, coconut, and nuts mix thoroughly. Spread on top of baked mixture in pan and return to oven. Bake 20 to 25 minutes longer or until lightly browned. Cool. Cut in squares. Makes about 2 dozen.

Ambrosia Bars

- 2 cups unsifted all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 3 eggs
- 1 cup granulated sugar
- 1 cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 1/2 cup butter, melted
- 2 teaspoons vinegar
- 1 teaspoon grated orange rind
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1 1/3 cups (about) flaked coconut
- 1/2 cup chopped pecans

Combine flour, baking powder and salt. Beat eggs until very thick and light in color. Add sugars gradually, beating constantly until thoroughly blended—takes at least 10 minutes. Blend in butter, vinegar, rind, and vanilla. Stir in flour mixture. Mix in coconut and nuts. Spread in a greased 15x10-inch jelly roll pan. Bake at 350 degrees for about 25 minutes or until top is firm and begins to brown. Cool in pan. Cut into 2-1/2x1-1/2-inch bars. Makes about 42 bars.

ALL AROUND THE TOWN . . . with Lee

Las Vegas Bound

BACK IN Belleville after four fun-packed days in Las Vegas are Chet and Mary Kosin of Elwell Road. Combining pleasure with business, they had as their goal the Pacific Automotive Show, International Automotive Service Industries held January 28 to 31 at Vegas' huge Convention Center.

Delayed three hours due to mechanical difficulties aboard their Jet Mainliner, they finally departed and spent their first evening visiting hospitality suites and cocktail parties of replacement auto parts manufacturers in the glittering hotels along "The Strip" (the Frontier and Riviera.)

The next day was spent 'walking their feet off' (as Mary put it) at the Automotive Show and then relaxing over dinner at the International Hotel where Elvis Presley was the headliner. At Caesar's Palace they chatted with Jerry Mays of the Kansas City Chiefs.

On the 30th they enjoyed a scenic air trip to Grand Canyon, then motored to various picturesque points. Arriving back in Vegas they drove to beautiful Lake Mead and took the last tour of the day through the Hoover Dam. After dinner they tried their luck with the "bandits" and enjoyed the Gay Nineties Burlesque Show at the Silver Slipper Saloon.

The next day was departure time and they headed for Michigan via Chicago. The Kosin kids were in the capable hands of a sitter with baby Christopher, who's 11-weeks old, staying in Dearborn Heights with his aunt and uncle, Fran and Bob Sewejkis.

Off To The Islands

THE BILL CURRIERS have just returned after spending the last two weeks in St. Croix, Virgin Islands, with friends who recently moved there from Birmingham. Enroute to their destination they met two couples (old friends) from Syracuse, New York, and enjoyed the sun, sea, and surf together.

The U.S. Virgin Islands are one of the last FREE ports left in the world and one of the islands still pretty much in its original status though this is rapidly changing with the advent of condominiums and hotels, Bill tells us.

The fishing is some of the finest in the world and the sailing can't be beaten since there is a steady trade wind in the area, he adds.

The Curriers spent a short time at St. Thomas before heading homeward.

He's Eight Now!

THERE WAS a party out at the Daniel Bailey home on Robbe Road last Saturday marking the eighth birthday of their son, Eric. There were lots of games to be played with Eric's big brother, Danny, directing the activities.

When it was time for birthday goodies, the eight youngsters found a special ship-shaped cake to devour aptly titled, SS ERIC.

Taking home party hats, balloons and prizes were friends and classmates, Jon Hancotte, Floyd Mac Dougal, Dennis Lorbeske, Larry Daniels, and Jimmie Laine; and cousin Kevin Hurlburt of Romulus. The honoree's other brother, Clint, was also in on the fun.

Cupid's Special

Since Valentine's Day comes but once a year, you won't want to miss taking advantage of this sentimental occasion to please your husband, sweetheart, father or other special man. Broil a huge T-bone or Porterhouse steak, bake potatoes and present him with a berry pie fresh from your oven. He'll be sure to remember this red-heart day!

Why Stew?

Flavor, aroma and appetite appeal reward a homemaker for preparing a slow-cooking stew. A plus is the free time while the stew is cooking that can be used to prepare a dazzling dessert, freshen up for dinner, read or relax.

Play Cupid With Peppermint Pie

Peppermint Pie captures hearts on Valentine's Day whether served as a party dessert or as the crowning touch to a special meal planned for dad and the junior-sized "Valentines." Light, frothy and delicious, this pie is filled with tasty crunches of stick candy and toasty chopped almonds.

The goodness of the filling is doubled when it is contained in a tender and flaky, golden crust. Reba Staggs, home economist with the National Live Stock and Meat Board, suggest using lard for pastry perfection.

Peppermint Pie

1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold water
3 egg whites
½ cup sugar
½ cup bits of crushed peppermint stick candy
¼ cup chopped toasted almonds
½ teaspoon vanilla or almond flavoring
1 cup whipping cream
9-inch baked pie shell

Soften gelatin in water for 5 minutes. Dissolve over hot water. Beat egg whites until almost stiff. Gradually beat in sugar until meringue is stiff. Fold in dissolved gelatin, crushed candy, almonds and flavoring. Beat whipping cream until stiff and fold into egg white mixture. Turn into pie shell. Outline large heart on top of pie and sprinkle red sugar inside heart outline. Or, decorate pie with a row of red candy hearts around edge of top. Chill until firm.

Single Baked Pie Shell

1 cup sifted flour
½ teaspoon salt
1/3 cup lard
2 to 3 tablespoons cold water
Combine flour and salt. Cut in lard until crumbs are size of small peas. Add water, a little at a time, mixing quickly and evenly with a fork until dough just holds in a ball. Roll to about 1/8-inch thickness. Line a 9-inch pie pan. Crimp edges and prick with a fork. Bake in hot oven (450 degree F.) for 12 to 15 minutes.

Eagle Notes

By JEFF DAHLSTROM

This past week has been one of good times.

The fantastic Eagle basketball team went into action on Tuesday, and stomped the Tigers of Belleville. Following the set pattern, our wrestling team also won their meet on Thursday.

On March 30 our French Club will take a trip to Quebec, the trip is called, what else "Tripping to Quebec."

If you are a student at Romulus, start chewing that gum, and put your Beech-nut Gum wrappers in room 301 or 103.

The high school with the most wrappers wins money and a free rock concert. Get yourself together with a pack of gum.

The flight newspaper has a new look. It is now being printed by a commercial printer. This runs into extra expenses, says Stephanie Sherer, editor, so whenever its on sale, please buy one. It's a better paper, for a better school.

This coming weekend is a day called Valentines Day, so on this day, show a little love.

Continuous Clean...

Continuous clean oven liners have been finished with a special new ingredient.

This finish plus oven heat, combine for new oven cleaning convenience with continuous clean. Most grease and normal soil vanish during regular oven use. If you have light spattering just before you turn off the oven, it will gradually disappear during later cooking, and these specially treated panels slide out so you can sponge off heavy soil right in your sink.

NRC Joins Event

Environmental Teach-In Scheduled For March 11-14

ANN ARBOR--The Natural Resources Commission has switched its March meeting from Lansing to Ann Arbor in conjunction with the Environmental Teach-In set for March 11-14 at the University of Michigan.

Its regular monthly format of a two-day meeting will be concentrated into an all-day session on March 12 so that members of the Commission and Department of Natural Resources officials will have more time to attend the wide spate of activities scheduled during the teach-in.

Tentative site for the Commission's meeting is the Michigan League on the U of M campus.

Earlier in January, leaders of the teach-in event urged the Commission to hold its March meeting in Ann Arbor to exemplify its decision-making role in natural resource matters as part of the four-day program bearing upon environmental problems.

The U of M teach-in is being sponsored by ENACT (Environmental Action for Survival) whose student, faculty, and community leaders see it as a marshalling point for a restive now-or-never mood among youth to clean up the environment, both in this state and across the nation.

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, under their Regulation Q, specifies the maximum allowable interest rate which a member bank may pay on savings deposits. Previously there was no provision for an interest rate above 5% on consumer-type deposits of less than $100,000. The one-year and two-year instruments that may now be offered by member banks at the 5.50% and 5.75% maximum rates respectively must be single-dated maturities.

*Multiple-maturity Certificates of Deposit include deposits that are automatically renewable at maturity without action by the depositor and deposits that are payable after 90 day written notice of withdrawal. This is the maximum allowable interest authorized under Federal Reserve Board regulations.

Single maturity Certificates of Deposit include deposits on which no additional interest may be paid after the maturity date. The matured certificate must be presented for redemption. A new certificate must be issued to reinvest the funds. This is the maximum allowable interest authorized under Federal Reserve Board regulations.

Troop 739 Reports On Initial Activities

ROMULUS--Boy Scout Troop No. 739, had its initial kick-off meeting with the presence of nine boys -- two Tenderfoot Scouts, and seven totally new boys -- on Dec. 16, 1969.

To further implement this group, a troop committee was formed with a force of four fathers.

Scoutmaster Charles R. Kline had stated that as far as he was concerned, the total program for the troop was the training of members so as to advance the new group and develop the potential leadership within the elected leaders and officers. So as to be able to expand the size of the group by April 1, 1970.

To this extent, the goal has been accomplished ahead of schedule.

On Feb. 17, a board of review shall convene for those boys passing their Tenderfoot rank, and for the approval of all officers elected.

With this, the Court of Honor will be held March 3, to recognize those accomplishments which the boys have attained and achieved.

During these last eight meetings, Troop No. 739 has met regularly and has had two camp outs -- one Troop campout, with all boys present, and one Greenbar Campout.

The boys that shall be trying to attain their rank before the board of review for Tenderfoot are: D. Cooper (Cheerleader), P. Affholter (Activities), G. McDiarmid (Scribe), M. McCallum (Quartermaster), D. Harmon (Treasurer).

The boys that have been elected to officerships are D. Johnson (Patrol Leader), and H. Millar (Assistant Patrol Leader).

The membership drive will open for new members and for new fathers to be on the Troop Committee March 3.

All boys from the Romulus, and Taylor area are asked to get in touch with Scoutmaster Kline at 941-5677 on or before March 2.

New Junior High Opening Is Set

BELLEVILLE—Van Buren School District's new and second Junior High School is now scheduled to open in the fall of 1970, Dale E. Kaulitz, school superintendent, announced this week.

A progress report on the construction of the new $2,257,000 school facility, to be located at McBride and Beck Rds. north of the I-94 Expressway and west of Belleville Rd. will not be ready until September, 1970.

School officials were planning on an earlier date for the new school that is to house more than 1,000 students.

The new junior high school will ease overcrowded conditions at Belleville High and the present junior high school, Kaulitz reported.

Approximately 600 students from Belleville High will be transferred to the new school and some students, number to be determined later, from the present junior high.

The new structure will be paid for by a bond issue for school building programs that was approved by the school district's voters some time ago.

The new educational facility will have 123,200 square feet and will provide "urgently needed" school space requirements, Kaulitz stated.

1970 State Road Construction Up

The State Highway Commission plans to award contracts in 1970 for $200 million in highway construction, up from $158 million in 1969.

The program reflects a reduction of 10 per cent in work originally planned for the year, a voluntary response to President Nixon's call for a cut in construction spending in an effort to halt inflation.

Home Rule Studied

Pension Hike, Other Items Approved by Supervisors

Improved pensions for County employees, more staff for Juvenile Court and the Jail, and a second look at County home rule are among the items acted on by Wayne County's Board of Supervisors at its latest meeting.

Zak said living costs have risen to the point where many retired County employees "are unable to live in reasonable comfort and dignity."

The pension improvements were negotiated with the major employees' unions.

The Board of Supervisors also approved the addition of five counselors, two caseworkers and three clerical personnel at Juvenile Court. An extra $100,000 which the supervisors earmarked for Juvenile Court in the budget will finance the new positions.

Juvenile Court had to refuse to serve some 2,500 youngsters referred by police last year due to its shortage of staff.

Three new temporary guard positions at the County Jail were approved along with the indefinite retention of eight previously approved temporary positions. The Jail has been as much as 400 prisoners over its designed capacity of 1,200 in recent months.

The Board of Supervisors referred to its special committee on County reorganization a recommendation by its general government committee that a County home rule proposition be placed on the ballot for the Aug. 4 primary election.

The action was taken by a 17-6 roll call vote.

February Calendar Filled With Winter Fun Events

LANSING—You don't have to be a skier to get in on the Michigan February fun, according to the winter edition of the Michigan Calendar of Events.

The Calendar, compiled and produced by the Michigan Tourist Council, lists more than 32 exciting wintertime outdoor activities for the month.

High lighting the list of spectator sports is the International Ski Flying Meet, Ironwood, Feb. 27-March 1. The meet will serve as a dedication for the newly completed Copper Peak Ski Flying complex, the only one of its kind in the western hemisphere.

Top jumpers from 12 or more foreign countries are expected to compete with America's best in an attempt to set a new ski flying record.

The present world record of 538 feet was established in Europe last year. Many experts believe leaps of more than 540 feet are possible from the giant Copper Peak slide.

Ski flying is distinguished from ski jumping by the tremendous distances involved. The sport is well established in Europe where international meets draw up to 50,000 spectators.

Winter festivals and carnivals offer a bonanza of fun for both spectators and participants. The Winter Carnival, Traverse City, is set for Feb. 20-22.

For those looking for speed thrills, the calendar lists a variety of winter races. Snowmobile races are scheduled for every weekend of February. The North American Snowmobile Championships, Munising, is Feb. 27-March 1.

Among other snowmobile competition are the Midwest Championship Snowmobile Races, Bellaire-Mancelona, Feb. 13-14; North Central USA Snowmobile Races, Lapeer, Feb. 14-15, and the 100 Mile Snowmobile Race, Presque Isle, Feb. 21-22.

Speed skating Championships will be held at Alpena, Feb. 14-15, and at Detroit Feb. 21-22. Sports Car Ice Run is scheduled at Grayling, Feb. 21-22.

Copies of the Michigan Calendar of Events, listing winter activities and events through March are available free of charge from the Michigan Tourist Council, Stevens T. Mason Building, Lansing 48926.

Fear Normal In Children Reports Home Economist

Every child is frightened at times, but if his fears are too intense or too prolonged they can cause permanent damage to his personality.

"For this reason take your youngster's fears and worries seriously and make every effort to alleviate them," recommends Mrs. June L. Sears, extension home economist for Wayne and Oakland counties.

"Probably the most common fear of children," she says, "is being alone in the dark. This is usually caused from a lack of self-confidence."

Ridicule and stern measures, intended to cure the child, may only make it harder for him to overcome this fear.

"Instead, try easing up on scoldings. He is showing how badly he needs comfort love and reassurance, not just at bedtime but during the day, too. Scoldings only make him feel guilty and give him a sense of failure."

The world around him, with its thunderstorms and snakes and its cats and dogs, is often frightening to a youngster.

"Don't ridicule him for his fear," warns the home economist. "Reassure him, and show him that you are not afraid."

"Family matters also disturb children. Probably more than you realize. Try to keep such discussions out of his hearing," Mrs. Sears suggests.

At about the age of three or four fear of death often shows up.

"While you should answer his questions about death honestly, remember to be reassuring. Try telling your youngster that people don't usually die until they are old and that you will all be happy together, as a family, for a long time."

Fears show up in many ways. Mrs. Sears notes that a child who is restless and irritable is often considered nervous. The most frequent cause, however, is fear.

Romulus Resumes Warfare

Twin Valley

TEAM	W	L
River Rouge	4	0
Willow Run	2	1
Ecorse	1	2
Romulus	1	3

After two non-conference victories, Romulus and coach Al Duva resume Twin Valley League basketball warfare at Ecorse Friday night.

The Eagles turned back neighboring Belleville, 68-43 last Tuesday and nipped previous league rival, Hamtramck, 68-65, on Friday to extend their winning streak to three.

The victory over the Cosmos, who, prior to this season competed in the Twin Valley, shoved Romulus' over-all mark to 8-4 on the season.

The Eagles, however, are battling to stay out of the conference cellar. They're 1-3 in the strong basketball league, dominated by State Class B champ, River Rouge.

Rouge sewed up the title last week, turning back challenger, Willow Run, 99-57. The win, the Panthers' fourth in the league, assured coach Lofton Greene's team of at least a share of the crown.

In its first encounter with Ecorse, Romulus had little trouble shaking the Raiders, winning a 73-64 league decision. Duva's boys, however, had the home court edge.

Ecorse is tough at home.

The Eagles also had problems shaking a determined Hamtramck quintet who found new strength in 6-1 forward William Nahorody.

Nahorody drilled in 11 baskets and six free throws to walk off with individual scoring honors. His 28 points kept things hot for the Eagles who needed a second half rally to erase a 54-50 halftime deficit.

Up to the intermission, it was Hamtramck who was playing catch-up ball.

Working its way to a 13-12 first quarter, Romulus' Don Halimon connected for 13 points in the second period to increase the Eagle margin to 34-24.

Nahorody came back with 13 of his points after intermission which were answered, in part, by Romulus center, Charles Johnican who sank five baskets in that third quarter.

Romulus Grapplers Eye District Meet

Watch out Romulus wrestlers foes-the Eagles have matured! Coach Jim Stallings' grapplers walloped Willow Run, 42-8, last Tuesday to make their Twin Valley Conference debut a successful one.

The Eagles came back to the mats on Thursday and toppled a strong Lutheran West team, 31-16, to pad their record to 5-4-1, going over the .500 mark.

"I'm pleased with this year's team," said Coach Stallings after his fifth dual meet victory. "And, I feel we'll be ready for district competition later this month."

"That's where it counts the most," he said. "The district is the big one."

Romulus will host this year's district tourney which will bring together teams from Garden City East, West, Westland John Glenn, Dearborn Heights Annapolis, Crestwood, Southgate and Wayne Memorial.

Against Lutheran West, the Eagles claimed eight victories, four of which were five-point wins. They won the final five bouts of the 12-class nonleague meet to turn the close contest into a runaway.

Results of the meet are as follows:

Romulus (31), Lutheran (16) 98 - Charles Decker(R) dec. Mike Hempel, 12-7
107 - Ken Sloan(LW) dec. Dennis Decormier, 15-0
115 - James Hemmingway(R) pinned Alex Allen, 3:31
123 - Reggie Smith(R) drew Bob Barker, 5-5

A record-setting crowd was on hand to watch Huron cagers set a pair of records Friday night which may stay in the record-books for quite some time.

Huron's 6-7 senior center Rick Wasilewski shattered the 1000 point barrier when he sank 32 points in the Chiefs' 100-50 basketball victory over Airport.

Wasilewski has compiled a total of 1023 points since donning a Huron varsity jersey three years ago.

Huron's 100 points also is a new school scoring record. It broke the "ancient" mark AIM--On the launching pad is Huron forward Butch Suemnick (34) who fires at Airport's basket. Huron was on target Friday night as it shattered a school scoring record when it polished off its league rivals, 100-50.

Huron Cage Records Fall of 99 set against Carlson a year ago in holiday tournament competition.

The victory over Airport moved the Chiefs into third place, lagging three games off the pace set by undisputed league leader, Flat Rock. The Rocks have a string of nine wins against no losses in the conference.

Huron wasted no time against its guests Friday night as it climbed to a 26-13 first quarter lead, then glided to a 52-22 halftime advantage.

The Chiefs were out of sight 71-33 at the three quarter mark.

All 10 Huron players found their way into the scoring column with five of them hitting for double figures.

Wasilewski, who scored on 11 field goals and 10 free throws, was high man for the night with 32 points. He also snared 23 rebounds to lead in that category.

Randy Gorham supported Wasilewski with 21 points, on eight baskets and three free throws. Don Mittlestat, who hauled down 17 rebounds, also got 11 points while teammates Joe Richert and Thel Dregansky chipped in 10 apiece.

Fred Smith's 16 points was tops for Airport.

The Chiefs also were hot at the free throw line where they turned in after sinking 24 of 33 chances. Airport made 18 of 33.

Though out of the conference's title picture, Huron still could be a thorn in the league-leader's side. The Chiefs and Flat Rock may again meet in the district Class B playoffs, which Huron will host next month.

Coach Court's quintet has two league games left: The Chiefs travel to Carlson on Friday and, on Feb. 27, will host Grosse Ile to wrap up the regular schedule.

TOP MAN--Airport guard Fred Smith (43) eyes Huron's Rick Wasilewski (44) and the ball in Friday night's Huron League encounter. Wasilewski, however, had no problem getting by his rivals, sinking 32 points to bring his career total to 1023 points-a new school record. Huron also went on to win the game, 100-50, setting a new team scoring mark in the victory.

Coach Allen Gates' Tigers hit bottom again after sustaining a 70-54 league setback from title hopeful, Livonia Bentley Friday night. The loss came on the heels of Belleville's most impressive win of the current campaign-a 75-65 victory over Redford Union. The victory lifted the Tigers briefly from the depths of the league.

Belleville's newest addition - 6-5 transfer student Joe Claybron continued to show life on the faltering Tiger team that now is 1-6 for the league season and 3-11 over-all.

With their leading scorer, Garrade Pettus trying to play over his foul problems, the Tigers were in the game until the final two minutes. They trailed by seven, then.

Pettus sat out most of the third quarter because of fouls and, early in the fourth, after a brief two minutes of play, he returned to the bench, sustaining his fifth personal.

Outscored in all of the quarters except the second where the Tigers had a 17-16 quarter edge, coach Gates' quintet was forced to play "catch-up" most of the night.

Belleville trailed its host at the half, 33-28.

In reach of their opponents with two minutes left, Belleville was forced to go after the ball when the host decided to stall. That stall paid off in fouls-but the Bulldogs couldn't cash them in at the charity strip.

Bentley finished up with 18 of 34 free throws to Belleville's 14 of 26.

Claybron, who made his third appearance in a Tiger uniform after transferring from Willow Run, sank eight buckets and three free throws for 19 points-one more point than Bentley's Lou Lovett who had 18 on six field goals and two charities.

Belleville's Jim Singleton and Pettus wound up with 10 points each while teammate Rick Mussehl held the rebounding spotlight with 17.

The Tigers head for Allen Park Friday night for another league engagement. The first time around the Jaguars claimed a 78-71 victory over their rivals.

THE SPORTS MERIDIAN

By Tom Mooradian

An Impossible Dream

A friend of ours was bold enough the other day to say, "Ypsi's basketball team could beat any all-star team in the area."

Now, I don't know if it was the mea (which was provided by the Sports Meridian after it had predicted erroneously the outcome of the Ypsi-Wayne game) or just plain orneriness which made the fellow, who demands say such nasty things.

"I don't think you could beat Ypsilanti even if you could organize an all-star team," he said.

Now, to those of you who are not acquainted with this scholarly gentleman, let it be known: He's quite intelligent, and knows high school sports throughout the state as well as our area.

He knows sports.

And, because he does, it got me thinking. And, you know we don't do that often around here!

Anyway, taking nothing away from Ypsilanti's fine present, or past, ball clubs, we figured we COULD come up with a team which would give those Braves some problems.

I dreamed up a quintet which would include: Rick Drewitz, a 6-7 pivotman from Garden City West, who, by the way, is only averaging somewhere in the area of 30 ppg.

With Rick at center, how about picking up Inkster's lanky defensive specialist, Duane Fox, who also is about 6-8. With Drewitz and Fox, how about using Robichaud's prolific scorer, Jim Alverson, and Romulus' Charles Johnican in the backcourt and Inkster's Eartha Fox, another near 30 ppg sharpshooter. That's a pretty fair team, wouldn't you say?

But, that wouldn't be fair, would it?

Let's try again: How about Cherry Hill's Jim Kroll (6-7), Huron's Rick Wasilewski (6-8), Dennis Leszczynski (GCW - 6-4), Jerry Allison (Inkster - 6-3) and Don Bates (6-3, Wayne). Another good quintet, huh?

Of course, these are just suggestions.

There are, of course, many problems in staging such a game: the biggest obstacle would be the Michigan High School Athletic Association, who rules athletic activities in the state high schools.

The MHSAA considers such games unorthodox.

Besides, who would we get to coach such a dream team?

Spoiling a Perfect Evening

Speaking of dreams, Wasilewski had a perfect night shattered by a group of vandals, Friday night. (Continued on 2nd Sports)

Champs Are Next

Tigers Dunk Bentley

Belleville swimmers established three new records in edging Livonia Bentley 60-45 in a Suburban Six Conference dual meet on Thursday.

It was coach Bill Brandell and the Tigers' first victory over the Bulldogs in nearly five years.

league record into Thursday's meet against defending league champs, Allen Park who'll be the Tigers' guests at 7 p.m.

Against Bentley, Belleville freestyler Chet Meyer was clocked in 4:09.7 to set a new varsity and pool mark in winning the 400 yard freestyle event.

Meyer's teammate, Terry

Mills, was also first in the 100 yard breaststroke which he finished in 1:10.9, a new varsity record.

Though he finished second for the 200 yard individual medley, Jim Ackron, who carded a 2:18.2 for the event, broke his own record. It's the third time in three weeks that Ackron has posted record times for the event.

He also went on to win the 100 yard butterfly for the Tigers, touching in at 1:01.8.

Belleville also picked up the two relay events. In the 200-medley, coach Brandell used Jim Walters, Terry Mills, Jeff Frye and Bob Coppick who turned in a 1:55.

The Tiger 400-yard freestyle foursome of Kim Stone, John Thomas, Bob Owen and Coppick finished in 3:43.4.

Meyer became a double winner when he emerged with a 1:58.3 for the 200 yard freestyle and Eric Rice piled up 203.65 to win the diving competition.

Earlier in the week (Tuesday) Belleville dunked nonleague rival, Wayne Memorial, 69-36. The victory was the Tigers' eighth in 12 outings.

Set WW Swim, Dive Meet Date

With the acceptance of Dearborn Heights' Annapolis into the Seventh Annual Western Wayne Swimming & Diving Invitational, area coaches may have to take a second look at their lineups.

Annapolis, the newest high school in Dearborn Heights and a recent entry in the Mid-Wayne Conference swimming domain, has several of the areas and one of the best swimmers in the state, including junior Pete Zuk.

Zuk, as versatile a tanker as they come, is ranked among the top freestylers in the state and also can figure in almost any event that Annapolis coach Dave Keddie sees fit.

The meet, co-sponsored by the ASSOCIATED NEWSPAPERS, a division of Panax Corporation, is scheduled for Saturday, Feb.

21 with Wayne Memorial as the host school.

Among other schools invited to send teams are Garden City East and West, Livonia Franklin, Wayne Memorial, John Glenn, Cherry Hill, Inkster, and Robichond and Belleville.

Belleville is the defending champ.

FEEDING THE PIVOT-With 6-7 pivot Rick Wasilewski (44) situated at low post, Huron southpaw guard Randy Gorham (20) has little trouble feeding the prolific Chief scorer. Wasilewski came up with 32 points to lead Huron to a 100-50 victory over Airport Friday night. Wasilewski also finished the night crossing the 1000-point barrier.

Rick, who collected his 1,023rd point in leading Huron to a record-setting 100-50 victory over Airport, received a standing ovation from the crowd.

Rick, however, was left standing in the cold after the game.

He returned to his car, which he parked in the school lot, and found that someone had broken out all the windows.

Some fans just don't like to lose, do they?

Speaking of losing — and winning — Garden City West coach Chris Babler isn't the only member of the family who has established a winning streak this year.

Babler's team has won 13 straight (an omen?) and is undefeated in the Tri-River Conference (11-0).

Chris' brother, Richard, who has been coaching basketball at Colon, Michigan for the past six years, also is working towards an unbeaten year. Richard's team, which plays in Class C, has also established a 13-0 record for the season.

Thirteen? And Friday is also the 13th?

Careful, you Bablers, is someone trying to say something?

Romulus Resumes League Warfare

(Continued from 1st Sports) the finale. He collected all of his eight points in the final frame, including two decisive free throws with 12 seconds left.

Halimon, who played his finest ball game since donning a varsity uniform, accounted for 23 points — a career high to lead the Eagle scorers.

Also in double figures for Romulus was Johnican who fired in 11 baskets for 22 points.

Johnican led his team in a runaway 68-43 victory over Belleville. The Tigers kept the game close until the final frame where the Eagles outscored them 24-13.

Romulus, ahead 16-12 at the end of the initial quarter, opened up a 32-23 halftime lead before breezing to a 44-30 third quarter advantage.

Johnican bagged 10 baskets and three free throws for 23 points to earn the game's individual scoring honors. Frank Nesbit and Szyndlar each had 11. Halimon chipped in 14.

Two of coach Allen Gates' Tigers managed double figures. Marty Miller picked up 12 and Jim Singleton counted 10.

Romulus had the benefit of 14 of 26 free throws to Belleville's 11 of 25.

Westland Hockey Players Challenge Canadian Myth

WESTLAND--Don't try to convince the youngsters in the Westland Hockey Association that the best hockey players in the world are supposed to come from Canada.

Not anymore, that is.

The Westland teams, hosting the Hespeler Minor Hockey Association in the second half of their sixth annual tournament over the weekend, skated off with nine victories in 10 matches.

Two weeks ago, the Westland youngsters picked up four wins and a tie in their 10 matches at Hespeler. In previous years, "Westland considered itself fortunate to come out of the tournament with its uniforms intact," according to Wilfred (Pete) Hind, president of the Westland Association.

Boys 8-18 years old compete in the tournament, with matches held in five age divisions and each team playing games Saturday and Sunday.

The Westland Pee wee All-Stars, boys aged 10-12 years, put on the best showing with a pair of shutout victories, 9-0 and 5-0.

James Bickie and Mike Mullins were the Westland goalies. Tim Juntilla, Richard Stoia and Kirk Grant scored two goals each in the Saturday victory while Lindsay Watts and Randy Saunders added a pair of goals in the Sunday game.

The tourney's most exciting encounter was the Squirts Division contest Saturday in which Brad Watts scored with 1:05 left in the game for a 1-0 Westland victory. Jeff Reeves and Dave Croft shared the goalie duties for the winners.

Westland fared much better in the Sunday 8-10 year-old contest, scoring a 4-2 victory.

Tim Livesay of the Westland Bantams had the most productive game, scoring four goals and picking up an assist in an 8-0 victory over Hespeler 12-14 year-olds Saturday. Teammate Scott Yateman took over the goal scoring duties Sunday, getting three markers in a 3-1 Westland triumph.

Mark DeRoche's three goals and assist led Westland to a 5-1 win in Saturday's Midget Division (14-16 years old) game, which Ted Williamson got three goals in Sunday's 6-3 victory over the Canadian youngsters.

The lone Canadian triumph came in the final game of the tourney when Hespeler gained a 4-2 victory in Sunday's Juvenile Division (16-18) contest. The Westland Juveniles, led by Joe McMasters' three goals, had scored a 4-3 triumph Saturday.

For their efforts, the Westland teams were presented the first annual Ed Kinsel Memorial Trophy, which has been established in memory of the man who got the tournament started and who died last year.

"This trophy belongs to all players and families of the city of Westland and not to any individuals," said Hind in accepting the trophy. "It is our hope that we can find a suitable place to put it on display so that everyone can enjoy it.

"Our players tried hard and came through in excellent fashion for us. They deserve the highest praise possible for excellent play and sportsmanship," he added. "We are honored to have won this memorial trophy upon its first presentation."

Crowds of up to 225 persons watched the games each day.

MIGHTY MITE--Steve Rachwal (left), mascot for the Westland Hockey Association, tries his talents at shoving a puck past goalie Terry Job from Hespeler, Ont., in some unofficial play before a game in the sixth annual tournament between the two cities.

HOCKEY FOLLOWERS WATCH ACTION--Some of the 225 fans who turned out to watch the sixth annual Westland-Hespeler, Ont., tournament over the weekend, brave the cold to watch their youngsters in action at Jaycees Park. The Westland skaters scored nine victories in the 10 games played in five age divisions Saturday and Sunday.

Try Coat Of Arms For Instant Status

CHICAGO--If there's a skeleton in your closet, leave it there. But if there's a family coat of arms in your attic, dust it off and hang it over the fireplace.

That's the advice of interior design consultant Mary Ann Wills who reports that ancestry is the latest thing in this age of anything-goes decorating ideas.

"To the dismay of heraldic and genealogical experts here and abroad, mail-order coats of arms have turned into a booming business," she reported. "You merely send in a check, and back comes a heraldic design that may or may not have any direct connection with your forebears."

According to the experts, in fact, chances of receiving a legitimate coat of arms in this manner are exceedingly remote. There are, for example, at least 384 different Smith family arms on record. Without exhaustive genealogical research, it would be nearly impossible to connect a presentday Smith with the proper Smith of an earlier century.

"If you're more interested in aesthetics than in authenticity, however, it doesn't particularly matter," observed Miss Wills, who serves as consultant to Burwood Products Company, Traverse City Mich. manufacturer of Arabesque wall accessories.

Honor Students Named

EAST LANSING--Four hundred and thirty students at Michigan State University will be honored for outstanding academic achievement during the fall term at a dinner given in their honor on Thursday, Feb. 5.

Each student must attain a grade point of 4.0 or 4.5 (A or A-plus) in every course to be eligible to attend the dinner and be listed on the honor roll which offers "recognition of the highest attainment in scholarship."

MSU President Clifton Wharton and Mrs. Wharton will attend the dinner in the Big Ten Room, Kellogg Center.

The dinner is jointly sponsored by the offices of the president and the provost.

Students honored from the Wayne County are Mark A. Burke, Nancy R. Davidson, Mary A. Jardine, David L. Kersten, and Suzanne A. Stout, of Livonia; Joseph Laframboise, Belleville; Catherine Begnoche, Garden City; Lyle D. Meier and Suzanne Noll, Plymouth; Clarence Hasselbach, Wayne; and Toni E. Vanduzer, Westland.

FACE OFF--Mike Gorak of the Little Caesar's team in the Squirts Division, prepares for action in Saturday's opening round games of the Westland-Hespeler, Ont. hockey tournament at Jaycees Park.

Wayne County Poster Girl Looks To National Contest

BY SANDRA KASHDAN

Kimberly Krolczyk, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Krolczyk of 3964 Niagra in Wayne, danced to the strains of Latin American music.

Unusual?

Not particularly--for most three-year-olds.

But for Kimberly, the 1970 Wayne County March of Dimes poster girl, it was a triumphant experience.

An exchanting blonde, Kimberly was born with "Spina bifida," a major birth defect commonly called "open spine."

Recounting enthusiastically the most exciting things that have happened since her daughter's selection in November, Mrs. Krolczyk sees Kimberly's appearances on television shows and meeting celebrities as unquestionably holding first place.

"Getting up at five, in the morning for the Bill Kennedy show was rather a jar," she said.

Best of all was meeting Detroit's mayor, Roman Gribbs.

Kimberly recognizes herself on television and demands of her mother, "What did I say?"

"Nuthin!" shoots back Mrs. Krolczyk. Kimberly's tendency to "clam up around strangers" has become a running joke between mother and daughter and Kimberly breaks out in a sly grin.

"Actually," said Mrs. Krolczyk, "she can talk like you never heard a child talk."

Kimberly moved from shy innocence, sitting quietly in a chair at the beginning of the interview, to carefree, and affectionate activity.

Tony, her 11-month-old brother, was the object of most of her affection.

Kimberly now recognizes Mayor Gribbs whenever she sees him on television and reminds everybody who the gentleman on screen is.

What price success?

"The kids around here all think she's special," says Mrs. Krolczyk.

"Some people get excited when they find out who she is. But, to those who have always known us, we're still just Kimmy and Jackie."

"There are those who have asked to 'borrow' Kim," Mrs. Krolczyk recalls with amusement, to get reservations and celebrity service at restaurants.

Asked if brothers, Eddie, 9, and Terry, 8, envy sister's sudden fame, Mrs. Krolczyk responds with an emphatic, "No, not in the least."

Kimberly is a candidate for next year's national poster girl, an honor that would keep mother and daughter busy five to six months.

"Then we'll be even," Mrs. Krolczyk says laughingly, recalling her husband's road trip last year with Detroit Tiger pitcher Denny McLain.

Her husband plays bass fiddle in the Tiger star's band, a job that kept Mr. Krolczyk away from the family most of last winter.

It was only a coincidence that Mickey Lolich, another star Tiger pitcher, served as chairman of the Wayne County March of Dimes and announced Kimberly's selection.

Kimberly doesn't quite understand the meaning of the honor, "but she knows the title," says Mrs. Krolczyk. "She tells everybody brightly who she is."

Mrs. Krolczyk looks forward to the national contest.

She savors the chance to help others.

CASTING A DEMURE LOOK as she dabbles in a variety of interests, 1970 Wayne County March of Dimes poster girl, Kimberly Krolczyk reminds everybody to give generously.

Criminals Unable To Generate Interest

When Fidel Castro made his revolution in Cuba it was as much with the fires of his orations and his personal charisma as with the guns of his raggedy mountain squads. One is led to the inescapable conclusion that Jose Trina was not one of his speech writers.

Trina is the author of "The Criminals," the first of two productions of the Phoenix Theatre imported by the University of Michigan's Professional Theatre Program to Ann Arbor this winter.

The most ominous note was the listing of two directors in the program page. David Wheeler and John Houseman, the latter listed as producing director and supervisor. In other words, the blame has been spread around.

There are no fireworks in "The Criminals," neither of the pro-Castro "long live the revolution" type nor of the anti-Castro "death to the dictator" type. Instead there are three sub-teens in an attic playroom acting out the fantasy of killing their parents. Supposedly we have anarchic youth rebelling against dictatorial age but it doesn't come off.

Barry Primus, Penelope Allen and Linda Selman play both the children and the parents and other adults as imitated by the children, but their adult interpretations are far superior to the youthful ones, as children they are far too worldly wise and cynical. A revolution must always be made by idealists.

The Phoenix Theatre has split off from its former partner, the APA, taking most of the APA personnel with it including director Houseman, designer James Tilton, costumer Nancy Potts and star (of the current production "Harvey") Helen Hayes. It is to be assumed that, which such professional talent behind it, that "The Criminals" was just an accident.

Just when you begin to despair totally for John Fernald's Meadow Brook Theatre-and they miss more often than they make it, applying the most rigorous standards as you should to a company with so much talent-along comes that bit of once-a-season magic that makes it all worth while. Fernald's current "Hedda Gabler" is this year's bit of magic.

Fernald's interpretation is good for a few arguments-the notes in the program that Hedda is as much a victim as she is a villainess. The theme of the role of a modern woman is nothing new for Ibsen. It was explored previously in "Doll's House" where Nora is clearly a victim. Fernald suggests that Hedda was a more incisive version of Nora.

If the interpretation can be debated, the result brooks no argument. It is a thoroughly polished production with a sense of ensemble performance not seen since "Long Day's Journey" last year. The entire cast, including Mikel Lambert as Hedda and Marshall Borden as her husband, works together extremely well.

A special word is due designer Bennet Averyt for including the small death room off the main set which most designers skip because it's function is limited. There is nothing skimpy about this performance not even the set.

Wayne State University's Bonstelle Theatre staged one of the most athletic "Taming of the Shrew" productions seen in a long time. For sheer physical exertion is almost rivals their "Fantasticks" of a decade back, in which a cast of gymnasts performed upon a jungle Jim of a set.

There is influence here of the Commedia dell Arte, the old Italian improvisational comedy which was about as slapstick as you can get. It isn't coincidental that the Punch and Judy characters evolved from it.

And N. Joseph Calarco's "Shrew" is decidedly in this tradition. The war between Katherina and Petruchio is so personal and violent a conflict that the production occasionally dissipates its shots and goes riding off in all directions. Slapstick must be a disciplined exercise or it loses all effectiveness.

The cast was mixed; William Feinberg leant some stature with his authoritative Baptista.

A Look At Fabrics For The Seventies

That beautiful velvet sofa with its elegant, rich look need no longer be saved until "the children are older."

Manufacturers today are offering velvets and other delicate fabrics chemically treated for easy care and long use.

Featured at the January 1970 International Home Furnishings Market at the American Furniture Mart will be elegant velvets as well as brocades, chenilles and other quality covers long associated with formal living.

Along with the formal covers, the trend toward modern and contemporary styling will bring about an increase in the vinyl and other synthetic materials — with a fabric look and feel.

Colors for spring will be crisp and snappy, duplicating the fashion and fruit tones of apple green, lime, lemon, apricot, plum, tangerine, as well as raspberry, light olive and the blues and greens shown in June. The earth tones — grays, browns, charcoal, pewter, golds, russets, black and white — with all their variations, in shade and hue, will also be popular for Spring.

Reds will be seen everywhere — standing alone or in combinations of blue and white.

But the biggest color news is coming from the plum/purple family which matches the current interest in this color family in women's fashions. Several manufacturers are showing purple as an accent, combining magenta with navy blue, lime green with lavender and violet with brown.

Bold patterns will be combined with the new dynamic colors in materials that feature strong textures in solids, stripes and jacquard designs. Spring's riot of flowers will also be captured in bouquets of floral prints that are clear and crisp — giving a gay, warm feeling to your room.

White and neutral shades will be shown and blended with stronger tones to help the homemaker set her own tone and make her home furnishings represent her individuality.

One of the best features of the new upholstery materials is the emphasis on easy care which is being built into them by way of protective coatings and introduction of chemical fibres. These new fabrics enable the homemaker to select white or other pale tones without worrying about buying plastic covers or keeping the children out of the room and away from the furniture.

The chemical fibres — acetate, acrylic, nylon, olefin, rayon — as well as vinyl and chemically treated fabrics, leather and suede give the homemaker unlimited variety in selecting upholstery that best meets the needs and desires of her family.

The current variety in patterns and colors enables the consumer to go feminine or masculine, formal or casual, traditional or mod — all within her budget and tastes.

MODERN STYLING with a Spanish accent is used for this "America at Home — Fall 1969" room setting designed Evelyn Muir for Fox Mfg. Co. Decorative panels on table and seating pieces are of molded polystyrene.

New Home Rooms Introduced At Market

New room setting displays featuring furniture fashions for the 70's was highlighted at the January 1970 International Home Furnishings Market, held January 4 through 10 at the American Furniture Mart in Chicago.

These rooms—created by top interior designers and featuring the latest furniture style introduced by the nation's leading makers of home furnishings—formed the Mart's "America at Home" program for 1970.

The Mart developed the "America at Home" program some years ago to enable furniture dealers to bring the latest decorative ideas and the newest furniture styles to the homemaker by fostering the idea of room setting display in the retail store.

The new "America at Home" program was only one of the highlights planned for the January Home Furnishings Market.

The Mart also planned a display featuring new furnishings made with plastics—either in construction, as a finish or covering. The best of the new furnishings using plastics was on display for the entire Market Week and special "Poly" awards were given to outstanding examples.

Another feature of the January Market was the Mart's "Problem Solvers Unlimited" service.

This service consisted of a group of business consultants—all experts in their field—who were at Market all week to give professional advice to furniture dealers on various business problems...advertising, display, promotion, insurance, accounting, etc. The service is offered to the Nation's retailers free of charge.

And once again, the Mart used its closed circuit color television system to keep visiting furniture men constantly abreast of the new introductions and Market news as it happened.

Introduced at the January 1969 Market, the Mart's closed circuit TV system has met with extremely favorable response from both dealers and home furnishings manufacturers.

Another feature of the January Market was the presentation of the American Furniture Mart's "Dorothy Dawe" awards—given yearly to outstanding journalists in the consumer news fields. The awards honor home furnishings writers and broadcasters for outstanding work in bringing furniture news to the homemaker.

A MASTER BEDROOM with a look to the future is presented by Cadillac Plastic & Chemical Co. for the new "America at Home — 1970" program at the American Furniture Mart. Created by Dave Goldberg of Ingales & Associates, the room features acrylic plastic chairs, cube tables, bed head-and-foot-board, occasional tables and ottoman. Room is done in dramatic black and white color scheme with red accents. Seating cushions are foam covered in wool.

Decor Magic With Windows

Windows can do more than let in light, air and a view — they can be used as a decorative accent for your home. White, uninteresting, flat window shades are a thing of the past. Textured shades of various fabrics can now be had ready-made or as a do-it-yourself project.

Try painting a design on the shades, or add trims or tassels, braids and fringes.

Colorful bright solids or floral or geometric patterned shades can also add sparkle to a room. Print fabric, laminated to a shade, adds window interest and can be used to pick up the room's color scheme.

For a personal touch or as a help to a straining budget—make your own curtains and draperies. Draperies and curtains need not be expensive or custom-made to be attractive.

Sheets that match bed spreads or sofa cushions can easily be transformed into color or pattern co-ordinated draperies.

Unusual hardware, such as decorator style rods in black, brass, bronze or wood finish, adds to the window treatment. Or try adding splashy, color contrasting tie-backs for draperies. Color-co-ordinated or contrasting valences can also add to your window's "eye appeal."

Another decorating possibility for windows is the use of shutters. Shutters are available in wood (try antiquing the wood) or metal. Inside sections of shutters may be constructed of mesh, grille cloth, cane wire screen, plastic or fabric. Shutters may also be constructed ceiling to floor to change the architectural appearance of a room.

If there is no window, the mood of sunlight can still be achieved with carefully placed lighting, brightly painted walls and a few well chosen pictures and accessories.

Equally important is the matter of table space and kitchen seating that serve as today's counterparts of the Victorian work table and balloon back chairs.

Victorian Morning Room Ideas

CHICAGO—Back in Victorian days, when houses had space to spare and servants aplenty, proper families began the day with a ritualistic breakfast served in the dining room. With this responsibility dispatched, domestics tackled the kitchen, nannies herded their charges to the nursery, and the lady of the house withdrew to a private retreat known as the "morning room."

An English architectural term, the morning room is best described as a "sitting-reading-writing room usually with a sunny exposure, which was used for a lady's morning activities such as menu planning, checking household accounts, and social correspondence."

According to Barbara Brody, interior decorating consultant, the closest a modern homemaker is apt to get to a morning room is her kitchen breakfast table which also serves as her study, work and hobby area, and telephone and social center.

Durable materials that are easy to care for and pretty enough to give a lift to both the eye and the spirits are essential to the morning room philosophy, said Miss Brody, who counsels the B. Brody Seating Company, Chicago, manufacturer of metal dining furniture.

"And if the kitchen you have to live with doesn't have the requisite 'sunny exposure,' a measure of imagination and a dash of common sense in decorating can simulate the real thing nicely," she said.

One way to avoid those midwinter

"Get-me-out-of-this-rut" blues!

Sure, your husband is great and you love your kids. But it is that time of year when "tired" seems to be the only word in your vocabulary. Don't be discouraged, It's an affliction which strikes each year about this time in near-epidemic proportions.

So "getting away from it all" is just not in the cards. What can you do to bounce back?

Here is how you can engineer a break in the routine and add a few bucks to the family budget at the same time.

Run a Want Ad, offering for sale some of the valuable but seldom used items around the house. Golf clubs, furniture, appliances, bicycles, power tools, you name it. A Want Ad will help you sell anything.

A lot of nice people will call in response to your ad. You will meet them when they come to look at the item or items you are offering for sale. And the lady you reach when you call to place your ad will be friendly and helpful, and pleasant to talk to.

It's a great way to break the monotony and pick up some unexpected cash at the same time. Oh yes, the cost of the ad is very low, and it is easy to get it into the paper.

Call the Want Ad number below and start a pleasant adventure.
